

NEW DELHI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

- Smt. Meenakashi Lekhi inaugurates Sanitary Napkin Vending machines and incinerators
- 10 such machines to be installed in different areas of New Delhi

New Delhi – August 05, 2016

Member Parliament, Smt.Meenakashi Lekhi inaugurated two Sanitary Napkin Vending Machines and incinerators one at Working Women Hostel -Indira Niketan at Laxmibai Nagar another one at Girl Swati Hostel, Kali Bari Marg in New Delhi area today.

Two such machines have already been commissioned at Bhagat Singh Place and second one at Palika Kendra.

Council Member Smt.Anita Arya and Secretary, NDMC Smt.Chanchal Yadav were also present on this occasion.

Speaking after inaugurating the vending machines and incinerators, Smt.Lekhi said that this is a right step towards the right direction undertaken by NDMC so as to provide hygienic health facilities to the women and also to 'AchieveClean and Healthy India by 2019'.

The most common method of disposal still remains flushing out of used sanitary napkins into the drains or dumping them into grounds is a health hazardous, she added. She further said that the NDMC has been directed to install 10 such Sanitary Napkins Vending Machines and incinerator in the different localities of New Delhi area.
