➤ NDMC to implement e-Learning system in its schools

New Delhi – August 17, 2016

New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) has decided to go for an innovative high-tech initiative by introducing e-Learning in the 444 class rooms of NDMC schools from Class – VI to XII in the first phase. A proposal to this effect has been approved by the NDMC Council in the meeting held today under the Chairmanship of Shri Naresh Kumar, Chairperson, NDMC.

This is a significant step taken by the Council towards transforming the traditional educational system in New Delhi area into smart educational environment in NDMC schools in digital era.

The work pertaining to setting-up of 444 smart class rooms under the first phase in 30 NDMC schools will be awarded at the cost of Rs.10.92 crore. The project is to be commissioned in a period of 100 days including CCTV cameras in these class rooms.

The service provider firm will have to undertake the work consisting of supply, installation, commissioning and functioning of hardware and uploading of educational digital contents for the e-Learning Project. The e-Learning infrastructure will be provided in Hindi and English medium sections from Class-VI to XII and digital education contents will be available in both languages medium as well.

The Chairperson said that the firm has to set-up the networking of class rooms computer with server, training to teachers, providing IT assistants cum Resource person. The service provider will undertake the supply, installation and functioning of CCTV cameras and 32 inch LED TV and on site comprehensive warranty for three years.
